DELTA TEAM

DELTA

It was a cold and rainy day when Lewis-326 or "apex" as his fellow Spartan IV 's called him he was the sniper of DELTA team.

There was a sudden rustling of leaves he brought his SRS99 S5 sniper rifle to bear in the direction of the noise to see James-441 deltas loud mouth assault specialist or "boomer" holding a M45D shotgun.

"what's up apex and stop pointing that thing at me will ya". Boomer shouted and pointed to the sniper rifle

Apex lowered his rifle gave him a two finger salute

"sorry man just don't sneak up on me next time okay" apex laughed

boomer jumped from the ledge he was standing on and landed next to apex

"don't worry I wont"

boomer was at least 6 inches shorter than apex and was wearing black armour with green highlights where as apex had blue highlights with black armour all of delta were in black armour with a highlight of their choice.

After couple of hours of walking the two Spartans came to a clearing filled with dead hinge heads witch was surprising considering marines couldn't deal hat much damage and the other IV 's were defending the infinity.

Suddenly apex's motion tracker flared he raised his rifle to see at least 20 Promethean knights.

"Well shit" said apex

"stop moaning lets show these motherfuckers whose boss delta style" exclaimed boomer as he equipped his M41 rocket launcher.

Suddenly delta 1,3,5,6 appeared and peppered the knights with 7.62mm ap rounds tearing then to shreds in seconds.

"thought you could use some help" delta 6 laughed
